Alice Inoue shines with a passion and a zest for life that is extraordinary. Her multi-cultural life experience, and eclectic training is the base for her current path as a “Life Guide”, which enables her to share her wisdom and inspirations both individually and through workshops and seminars around the world.

Alice’s education is both classical and non-traditional. Born in San Francisco and raised in Taiwan from the age of eight, she entered the University of California as a pre-med student and earned a degree in Biology at the age of twenty. Rather than enter medical school at that time, Alice traveled to Japan to teach English. Already fluent in English and Mandarin, she added Japanese to her linguistic skills and cultural studies.

After moving to Hawaii in 1989, Alice entered the world of business as an administrative assistant, moving into the role of an operations manager soon after. In an unexpected shift, she jumped into the world of media, first debuting as a live-daily TV show host, followed by years as a bilingual News Anchor and host of her own weekly Japanese TV show. During this time Alice also served as spokesperson for a multitude of companies.

Inspired by inner guidance and a long-standing interest in spirituality, Alice once again made a dramatic shift in her life path and became an ordained minister. Soon after she began rigorous self-study, as well as intensive studies with respected masters of Feng Shui and Astrology.

Since then she has advised thousands worldwide on their life cycles through Astrology and offered her Feng Shui expertise to many hundreds of homes and businesses in all parts of the world. She has made numerous guest appearances on radio and television and has been prominently featured by all major state publications such as Midweek, Hawaii Business Magazine, Pacific Business News, Honolulu Advertiser, Star-Bulletin, Midweek, Homescapes, and Hawaii Home & Remodeling.

In addition to her work with individual clients, Alice also serves as a presenter and workshop leader to both corporate and private audiences around the globe. With meaningful content and a highly energetic, engaging presentation, she connects with her audience in a way that is enlightening, inspiring and entertaining.

Alice writes the Astrology and Feng Shui column for the high-traffic website www.dannion.com (by New York Times best-selling author Dannion Brinkley) as well as for the popular Japanese publication Aloha Street. She has produced her own Feng Shui Instructional DVD based on her signature presentation and is a contributing author to the national best seller, Wake Up...Live the Life You Love with Passion, a compilation of self-development philosophies by great thinkers such as Wayne Dyer and Deepak Chopra.

Always speaking the words of her heart, she has a passion that is contagious and as a result, awakens those she meets to seeing a new light within their own lives.
